

ELA-LEGO Challenge Board

B	I	N	G	O
Call a relative; have them tell you a story from when they were your age. Retell the story using Lego pieces.	Close your eyes and build with blocks for 5 minutes. Open your eyes and come up for a story for what you built!	Build a map of your neighborhood out of Lego blocks. Be sure to include and label important things.	Build something that starts with each letter of the alphabet. Put them in a line to create a Lego-Alphabet..	Read a book without any pictures in it. Using your imagination, build what pictures would look like.
Find 5 new words in a dictionary. Spell them out with Lego blocks. See how many times you can use them in a day!	Take five lego pieces with you on a walk. Take pictures of them along different places. Write a story about their big day out.	Build a creature, animal or person out of lego. Practice your public speaking by reading out loud to your new reading buddy.	In something you've read, Find the problem in it. Construct a solution out of Lego pieces. Explain what the problem was your solution	Research a famous author. Build a statue to them out of lego. Include five things in the statue that define that author.
Design a new Lego block. Draw pictures of it from different angles. Write a letter to the Lego Company on why this piece needs to be made.	Build something that looks like a different letter of the alphabet depending on how you look at it.	Build a device that can draw your name.	Write out the alphabet. Assign a different block to each letter of the alphabet. Build a secret message and see if someone can decode it.	Create a puppet show out of Lego blocks. The story starts with "I was at the playground and then a rocket ship landed...the first thing I did was..."
Build something and take a picture and send it to a friend. Have them write down what they see. Then send that explanation to another friend that has to build what's there. See what changes or keep the cycle going!	Research a famous moment in history. Construct it out of lego blocks. Write a little caption that explains why it's important. Have other friends make their own to create a museum of World Lego history!	Assign a color block for each part of speech such as: nouns, verbs, adjectives, pronouns and adverbs. Read something and add a block to a tower everytime they show up in what you read!	Take apart a minifigure and pick a word or phrase. Have a friend guess letters. Everytime they guess wrong, put a piece of the minifigure together. See if they can figure it out before the minfigure is complete!	Out of Lego blocks and pieces. Create a game to play. Write down the instructions. Give everything to a friend. See if they can figure out how to play the game without you telling them anything.
With a dry-erase or washable marker. Write words on the Lego blocks. Jumble them together. See what crazy sentences you can make!	Look up a new word in a dictionary. Build a representation of the definition of out Lego blocks. Show it to another person and see if they can figure out what the words mean.	Pick at least six words. Break them down to their syllables. Write each syllable on a block. See what new words you can make with the syllables.	Pick a word, build it out of Lego. Give a friend 3 guesses to figure out what word it is. If they get it right, you get a point. Take turns, the first one to 5 points wins.	Close your eyes and listen to a song. Once you're done. Build what you imagined what you saw when you closed your eyes. .

